

HEBER CITY, UTAH

Jeff's Hotel, Ideal Theater on Main Street. —Submitted by Joyce Coleman Craig

MAIN STREET, HEBER CITY, UTAH

F. O. BUELL'S STORE.

eber City in
ction of tin
is knowledge
ed his stock
gan business
branched out
ough careful
y his busi-
sed until the aching out to the Reserva-
is mercantile opened a shop on the present site of his store building and with a few boxes of candy began the merchandise business in connection with his tinsmithing. He feels that he has met with many obstacles and some opposition in his business career, but he has proved himself able to surmount the former and live down the latter. A branch store has already been established at Stockmore with C. W. Phelps in charge which is receiving a fair share of the trade in that locality. Another branch to be known as the

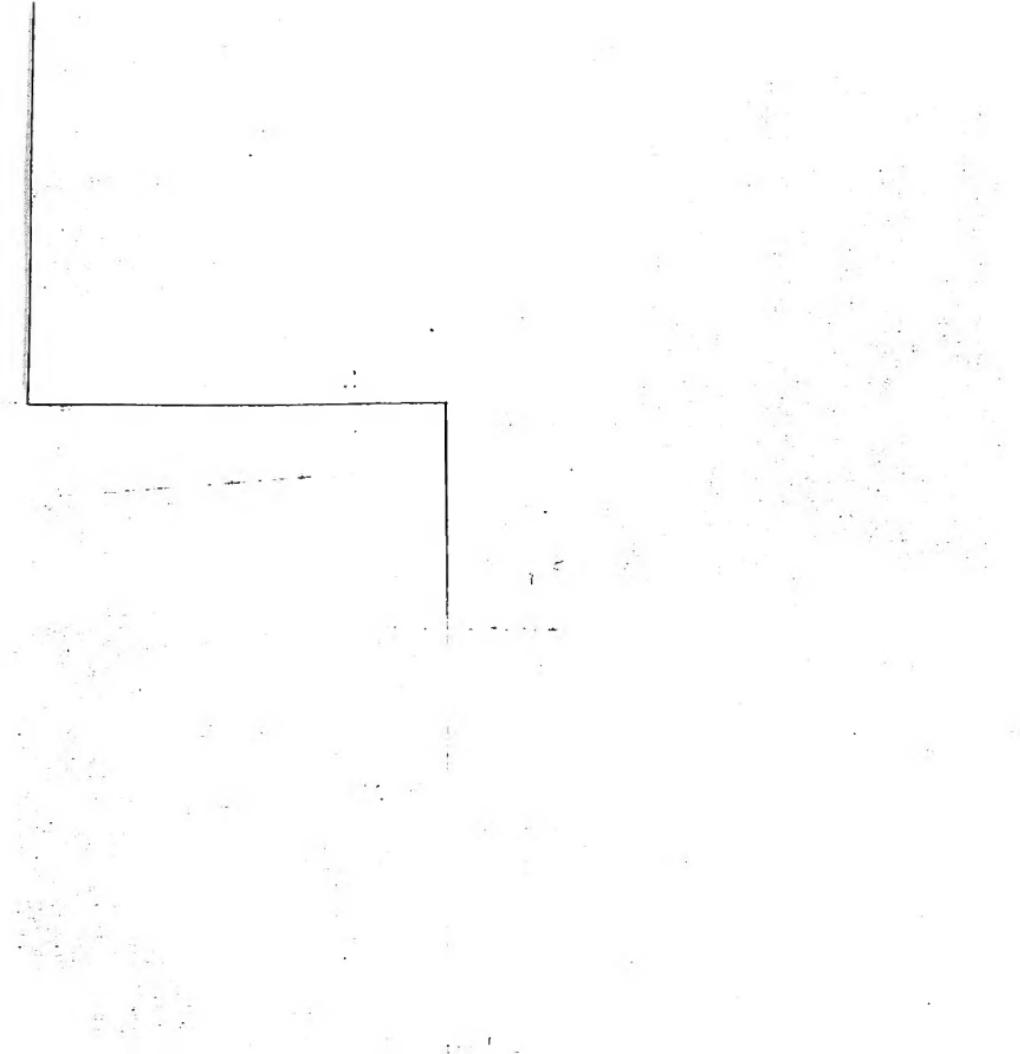

Heber he

Buell Mercantile Company, has been launched at Theodore with J. W. Meadows as manager. A two-story store building is now in course of erection at that place and according to arrangements will be finished and stocked before the beginning of the new year.

His trade at home has materially increased the past season and during the months of October and November of this year, his receipts were double what they were on the corresponding months of last year.

Frederick O. Buell

Hicken Barbershop, Seiter's Bakery, and Wasatch Meat Market, Sylvan Smith and Earl Smith, approximately 1927. —Submitted by Walter Seiter